

CHAIGELEY SCHOOL

Spiritual, Moral, Social, Cultural (SMSC)

All schools in England must show how well their pupils develop in SMSC, promote British Values and be aware of the Prevent Duty.

SMSC

Chaigeley offers a wide range of activities and opportunities for pupils to engage in to promote this development. SMSC is embedded into the curriculum in addition to specific activities designed to prepare our pupils for life in Modern Britain.

Ofsted definition of 'spiritual' development.

Explore beliefs and experience; respect faiths, feelings and values; enjoy learning about oneself, others and the surrounding world; use imagination and creativity, reflect.

Ofsted definition of 'moral' development.

Recognise right and wrong; respect the law; understand consequences; investigate moral and ethical issues; offer reasoned views.

Ofsted definition of 'social' development.

Use a range of social skills; participate in the local community; appreciate diverse viewpoints; participate, volunteer and cooperate; resolve conflict; engage with the British values of democracy, the rule of law, liberty, respect and tolerance.

Ofsted definition of 'cultural' development.

Appreciate cultural influences; appreciate the role of Britain's parliamentary system; participate in culture opportunities; understand, accept, respect and celebrate diversity.

British Values

From November 2014 schools must now promote British Values through SMSC and the curriculum.

Prevent Duty

From July 2015 all schools now have a legal duty to prevent pupils from becoming radicalised.
