The summer sun's sizzling rays highlighted the numerous rows of brightly-coloured towels hidden by sluggish sunbathers sprawled across the beach. Like a blue jewel, the sky stretched above the golden sand and the bustling scene of families and groups of friends enjoying the sunshine. Gently, waves lapped onto the sand, white froth capping the ripples like the bubbles on top of a fizzy drink. The calm suck and whoosh of the waves mingled with chatter, shouts and general summer day happiness from the sun worshippers.
